1/ Learned counsel appearing for Nagpur Improvement Trust states that complaint of the petitioner dated 5.2.2007 discloses names of 21 persons who have been allotted the flats. On receiving that complaint, show-cause notices have been issued to those persons calling upon them to furnish proof of their income. He further states that if reply from those persons is received, within four weeks appropriate orders will be made and even if no reply is received, then also orders in accordance with law will be made. He further states that whatever order is made by the Nagpur Improvement Trust in relation to those 21 persons, it will be supplied to the petitioner. Learned counsel for NIT further states that in future also if the petitioners gives details about the persons who, according to him have been allotted flats though they are not entitled to the same, the Nagpur Improvement trust will act on that complaint and proceed in accordance with law. Statements are accepted. In our opinion, these statements take care of the grievances made by the petitioner who claims to be public spirited person and no further orders are necessary to be passed. Petition disposed of.
